PENTECOST OFFERING

The background of the entire graphic is a composite image. At the top, a white dove with a rainbow-colored halo is shown in flight against a light blue sky. Below the dove, a pair of hands is shown pouring a large quantity of small, light-brown, round seeds (likely lentils or beans) from the palms. The seeds are falling towards the bottom of the frame, where a large pile of the same seeds is visible on the left side. The overall tone is bright and hopeful.
