

INSPIRED TO LEAD

Intentional inspiration for leaders to focus, to reflect and to take bold action

An Invitation to Fill Your Transformative Leadership Bucket?

Inspired to Lead

focuses on:

“intentionally inspiring transformative living and leading”

Come and join a growing network of men and women who have seen their confidence, competence and capacity increase while experiencing greater levels of fulfillment and purpose in and through their leadership.

Former participants would tell you that you will find yourself:

- gaining greater knowledge in an area of skill that is needed
- increasing your critical thinking skills
- experiencing customized and focused learning
- embracing tools that enhance your leadership in this season
- finding new networks of colleagues and peers
- being nurtured in a safe and inspiring atmosphere
- learning to reproduce leadership into the lives of others

Too often we neglect to invest in our own transformation because of :

competing agendas

unhealthy margins

mixed priorities
